THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1

1. As of early February 1952, the Chinese Communists had established an Hainan Special Training Class located seven miles northeast of a bay at Paimiaot'o (白廟它), Haik'ou (110-20, 20-03). There were only a few houses near the bay, and the training class could be reached only by jeep.
2. The class was training agents for the Information Bureau (情報局).¹ and courses included information gathering, organization and training, communications, party reports, leadership strategy, method strategy (sic), and assassination techniques. Persons chosen for this training were examined and sent by Communist Party authorities; no one could apply on his own initiative.

1. Comment. Probably a Party organ.
